

fishery in New York, the Department is adopting emergency regulations which establish the specific black sea bass season closure periods necessary to comply with the FMP. Simultaneously, the Department is revising its proposed rule, which appeared in the May 12, 2004 issue of the State Register, to include these same provisions.

The promulgation of this regulation on an emergency basis is necessary in order for the Department to maintain compliance with the FMPs for summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass and to avoid closure of these fisheries and the economic hardship that would be associated with such closure.

Subject: Regulation of the recreational harvest and possession of marine fish species (summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass) in New York's marine district.

Purpose: To control the recreational harvest and possession of marine fish species (summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass) consistent with conservation requirements identified in regional FMPs.

Text of emergency/revised rule: Section 40.1 (f) is amended as follows:
40.1 (f) Table A - Recreational Fishing.

* Total length is the longest straight line measurement from the tip of the snout, with the mouth closed, to the longest lobe of the caudal fin (tail), with the lobes squeezed together. Total length is the measurement of the caudal fin intact and with the lobes squeezed together, laid flat on the measuring device.

Large and Small Coastal Sharks include those shark species so defined as in Table 1 to Appendix A to Part 635 of Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations.

++ Pelagic sharks include those species so defined as in Table 1 to Appendix A to Part 635 of Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations.

Regulatory Impact Statement

1. Statutory authority:

Environmental Conservation Law (ECL) Section 13-0340-b, 13-0340-e and 13-0340-f authorize the Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC or Department) to establish by regulation, open season, size, catch limits, possession and sale restrictions and manner of taking for summer flounder, scup and black sea bass.

2. Legislative objectives:

It is the objective of the above-cited legislation that DEC manage marine fisheries to optimize resource use for commercial and recreational harvesters consistent with marine fisheries conservation and management policies and interstate Fishery Management Plans (FMPs).

3. Needs and benefits:

Pursuant to § 13-0371 of the ECL, New York State participates in the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Compact administered through the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission (ASMFC) to promote cooperative utilization of marine fish species. The principal mechanism for implementation of cooperative management of migratory fish are the ASMFC's Interstate Fisheries Management Plans for individual species or groups of fish. The Fisheries Management Plans (FMPs) are designed to promote the long term health of these species, preserve resources, and protect the interests of both commercial and recreational fishers. Under the provisions of the Atlantic Coastal Fisheries Cooperative Management Act (ACFCMA), ASMFC determines if states have timely implemented provisions of FMPs with which they are required to comply. If ASMFC determines a state to be in non-compliance with an FMP, it so notifies the U.S. Secretary of Commerce. If the Secretary concurs in the non-compliance determination, the Secretary promulgates and enforces a complete prohibition on all fishing for the subject species in the waters of the non-compliant state until the state comes into compliance with the FMP.

ECL Sections 13-0340-b, 13-0340-e and 13-040-f, which authorize the adoption of regulations for the management of summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass, provide that such regulations must be consistent with the FMPs for these species adopted by the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission. ASMFC recently amended the FMPs for summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass by adopting annual quota changes and recreational harvest projections. In order to maintain compliance with the FMPs and ACFCMA, states are required to immediately implement these changes by amending their recreational fishing regulations for each of these species.
